

REFUGE CEREMONY

with ZaChoeje Rinpoche

Sunday, February 24th 2008 1-4 PM

“Taking Refuge is known as the entrance to the spiritual path; it means inspiring, admiring and trusting wholeheartedly in the Three Jewels - the Buddha, the Dharma and the Sangha.”

- ZaChoeje Rinpoche

Refuge (Kyab-Dro), as Rinpoche explains, is to seek protection and surrender to that which will turn us towards happiness instead of towards suffering. Only with a general concern for our own true happiness will we take steps to find it within ourselves.

When we take refuge in the Buddha, Dharma and Sangha it is none other than our own potential and ability to manifest wisdom, compassion, and positive action that benefits ourselves and others.

Please join us as Rinpoche explains how to lead ourselves into the spiritual path by way of faith in one’s Guru and The Three Jewels. All are welcome to this event and no registration is necessary.

www.emahofoundation.org

Emaho Center is just south of McDowell Road, on the west side of Miller, in the Los Arcos Medical Plaza.

Emaho Foundation is a 501(c)3 organization led by its spiritual director ZaChoeje Rinpoche and a volunteer board of directors.